is still pending in the Eastern District of Washington. A detention hearing is scheduled for April 30, 2020.

Standard Condition # 6: The defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Mendoza is considered to be in violation of his supervised release by failing to notify his probation officer at least 10 days prior to any change in residence since April 6, 2020.

Mr. Mendoza's supervised release commenced on June 22, 2017. His conditions of release were reviewed with him on June 22, 2017, including standard condition number 6, as listed above.

On April 27, 2020, the undersigned officer was contacted by DEA agents regarding the information contained in the above-mentioned violation. During Mr. Mendoza's arrest, agents located him at 6203 Leicester Lane, Pasco, Washington. Agents reported that Mr. Mendoza has been living at this residence since the first week of April 2020. Upon Mr. Mendoza's arrest, agents noted that dominion documents were found in Mr. Mendoza's bedroom at this residence. The residence was fully furnished and appeared to be lived in by Mr. Mendoza. Mr. Mendoza's last reported address to U.S. Probation was 1114 W. 10th Ave., Apt. G-104, Kennewick, Washington, on April 1, 2020. He made no mention to the undersigned officer that he was living at a different residence.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant requiring the defendant to appear to answer to the allegation(s) contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
